the land, though she and her husband continue to reside thereon. In the event of the death of a pre-emptor before making proof and payment, the title may be perfected by or for the benefit of the heirs. Ordinarily widows are benefit. In some States widows are by statute made heirs of their husbands, and where such is the case, should there be no other heirs, the widow may perfect and enjoy the benefit of title to the land. Should there be several heirs the widow as one of them may perfect title for the benefit of all. Where the State law allows the widow only a dower right-or l e estate-in the property of her diseased husband, she can not acquire title to his pre-emption claim, but may as guardian make proof and payment for the benefit of minor

A Horrible Inheritance.

The transmission of the fearful effects of contagious blood poison is the most borrible inheritance which any magna leave to his innocent posterity; but it can be certainly mitigated and in the majority of cases, prevented by the use of the autidote which Nature furnishes, and which is found in the remedy known all over the world as Swift's Specific—commonly called "S. S. S."

Mr.J.H. Brown, of Hornellsville, N. Y., writes: "Three years I suffered with this horrible disease. Swift's Specific cured me completely."
